Incident Status Summary (ICS-209)

Incident: BALDY

28. Observed Fire Behavior or Significant Events for the Time Period Reported (describe fire behavior using accepted terminology. For non-fire incidents, describe significant events related to the materials or other causal agents):

Minimal
Backing
Single Tree Torching
Creeping

Narrative:

Suppression activities, light rainfall and moderating weather have contributed to reduced fire behavior. Potential still exists for fire to move if interior consumption produces spots.

29. Primary Fuel Model, Materials, or Hazards Involved (hazardous chemicals, fuel types, infectious agents, radiation, etc):

Light Logging Slash
Timber (Litter and Understory)
Timber (Grass and Understory)

Narrative:

FM11 mimics heavy dead and down component with closed canopy. FMs TU5 and GS2 from LANDFIRE are being used for modeling.

30. Damage Assessment Information (summarize damage and/or restriction of use or availability to residential or commercial property, natural resources, critical infrastructure and key resources, etc):

There are structures and a residence on the isolated private property to the north and in the community of Cedar Creek. To the south, southeast and southwest are critical Seattle City Light, Bonneville Power Authority (BPA) and PUD transmission lines and fiber optic lines.

33. Life, Safety, and Health Status/Threat Remarks: Currently fire is still on USFS, however, it has the potential to threaten private inholdings with some structures. ICT2 worked with local authorities for pre-planned evacuation procedures and contingency actions. For public safety, an area closure on USFS lands that includes roads and trails is in effect. Significant firefighter hazards include extensive snags, bug, drought and fire-weakened trees, steep terrain, limited safety zones, rolling debris and reburn potential. Deliberate Risk Analysis completed, updated and approved. 35. Weather Concerns (synopsis of current and predicted weather; discuss related factors that may cause concern): Cool and damp air was prevalent over the fire today with much lighter winds compared to what was encountered yesterday. For most of the day, clouds were prevalent with little rain other than what fell last night and early this morning. However by late afternoon, a weather disturbance passing through southern British Columbia generated scattered showers and a thunderstorm which brought rains and occasional lightning to the fire. The disturbance is expected to make a hasty exit during the evening with drier and warmer weather returning to the fire for Sunday. The winds will turn to more of a west to northwest direction, but speeds will generally remain less than 10 mph.	34. 36. Projected Incident Activity, Potential, Movement, Escalation, or Spread and influencing factors during the next operational period and in 12-, 24-, 48-, and 72-hour time frames: 12 hours: Cooler, moderating weather and light rain will keep fire activity minimal. 24 hours: Cooler, moderating weather and light rain will keep fire activity minimal. 48 hours: Drier air will increase interior consumption. 72 hours: Drier air will increase interior consumption. Anticipated after 72 hours:

37. Strategic Objectives (define planned end-state for incident): Where safely possible, direct and indirect suppression tactics are being employed to minimize fire duration and long-term firefighter exposure. Options that balance safety with a high probability of success are being utilized, reducing the risk of fire spread to private lands and residences. Containment and control efforts will protect from loss the Cedar Creek community watershed, PUD and BPA transmission lines, and other FERC infrastructure.
